Celebrating Donor Funded Awards at the UBC Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences
A prize is offered by the Canadian Society of Hospital Pharmacists, B.C. Branch. The award is made to the graduate student in the Pharm. D. program with the highest standing in Pharmacy 501. The award is made on recommendation of the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences in consultation with the Faculty of Graduate Studies.

A scholarship has been endowed through the generous support of family, friends and colleagues in memory of Dr. Dario Alberton for an outstanding student entering the Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD) program. This award is primarily based on the student’s scholarly achievements and is made on the recommendation of the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences in consultation with Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.

Travel awards are offered to enable graduate students in the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences to attend conferences or symposia at which they will present a poster or an academic paper. The awards are made on the recommendation of the Faculty in consultation with the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.

A scholarship for two years is offered by Swamy Yeleswaram for a pharmaceutical sciences PhD student entering the Outstanding Graduate Scholar Training Program. This award is established in honour of Professor Emeritus James E. Axelsson, who served as Dr. Yeleswaram’s mentor while he was a graduate student at UBC in the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences. Recommendations are made by the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences in consultation with the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.

A scholarship has been endowed by Dr. Diana Shu-Lian Chow (PhD ’81, Pharmaceutics) in honour of her parents, for doctoral students in Pharmaceutics who are in their second or later year of graduate study in the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences. No student may receive this award more than once. The award is made on the recommendation of the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences, in consultation with the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.

A scholarship has been endowed by the Ma family in honour of Mr. Kam Li Ma. It is awarded to a graduate student in the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences who is interested in the study and research of the traditional use of herbal and animal medicines based on the traditions of a particular society. The award is made on the recommendation of the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences, in consultation with the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.

Two awards have been endowed by Sarvajna Dwivedi (MSc’88, PhD’92) and his wife, Seema Dwivedi (PhD), in honour of his father, Dr. Rewa Prasad Dwivedi, professor emeritus of Sanskrit at Banaras Hindu University in India, and of his graduate supervisor at UBC, Dr. Alan G. Mitchell, professor emeritus of Pharmaceutics. The awards recognize graduate students in the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences who demonstrate research excellence and impact through peer-reviewed journal publication. Eligible candidates must have published, or have been accepted for publication, in any of the top three journals in their discipline. In absence of a peer-reviewed publication, research presented at a prestigious conference, by podium or as poster, will be considered. Preference will be given to students who take an interdisciplinary approach to their research and/or show exceptional inventiveness or initiative. In the case of a truly exceptional candidate, the awards may be given as one award. These are intended to be truly awards for excellence, and are not to replace or otherwise impact any other forms of graduate student funding. The awards are made on the recommendation of the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences in consultation with the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.

Scholarships have been endowed by friends and colleagues of Dr. Peter Jewesson (B.Sc.P.’78, Ph.D. Pharmaceutical Sciences ’86) for students in the Doctor of Pharmacy Program. The awards are made on the recommendation of the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences.

...I have been actively involved with the Faculty of Pharmacy, volunteering as a peer tutor for 1st year students, acting as my class representative for CAPSI, and serving as an editor for the UBC Pharmaceutical Sciences Student Journal, while also working part time. This scholarship will help ease the financial burden with being a student.

We are appreciative of the generosity of our donors in supporting awards that recognize and celebrate student and faculty success in education, research and mentorship.
